Drum Corps Relationship: (what prompted you to make the donation?)

Would you like to make this donation in someone else name?

Any denomination of a donation is welcomed and greatly appreciated. With your support the Camp will successfully meet its goal – to help motivate young musicians in the Fife and Drum music. This art form is rich in the History of our Country and it is the hope of the Camp to enable and educate participants from a wide variety of corps to function as a team, to play new music, and develop friendships that will grow for many years in the future.
